Sourcebooks Landmark

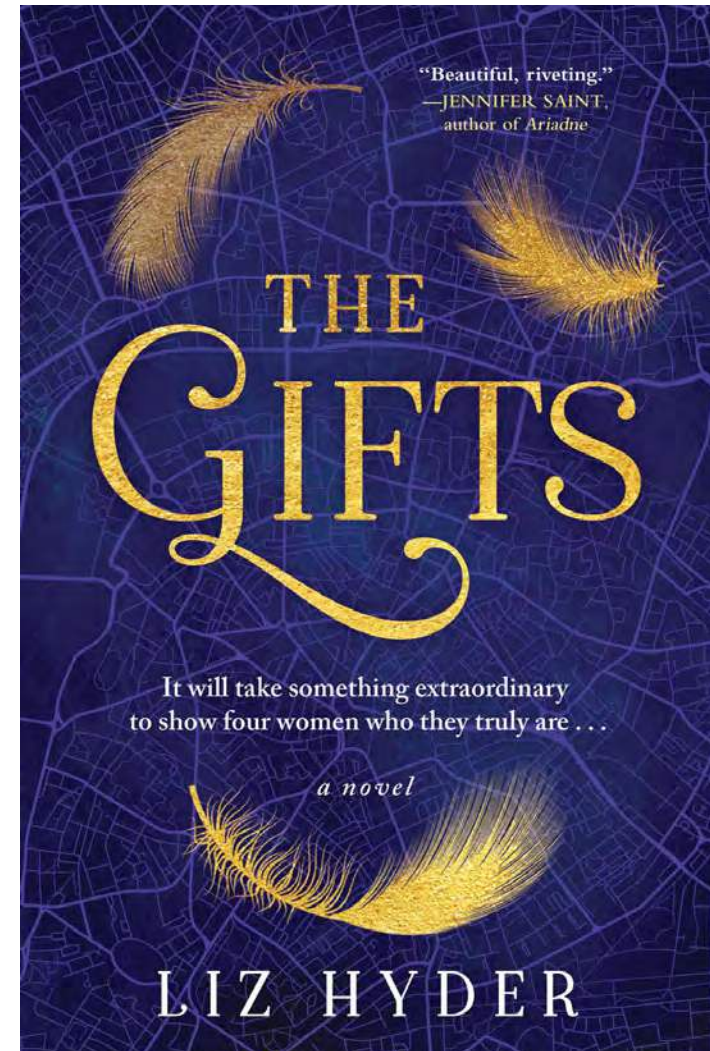

Hardcover

On sale: June 6th

ISBN-13: 9781728260549

$27.99

For as long as she can remember, Ana has been an outsider. Her refugee family settled in 1860s Springfield, Illinois, in the enclave of Little Madeira, where Portuguese rolls off the tongue and porches are full of neighbors and children. Springfield is also home to a rising politician named Abraham Lincoln.

It is in the Lincoln home that Ana finds employment as household help, working directly for Mary Lincoln in a front-row seat to historic societal changes that will reshape not only Springfield, but an entire country.

You Were Always Mine

Christine Pride and Jo Piazza

Atria Books

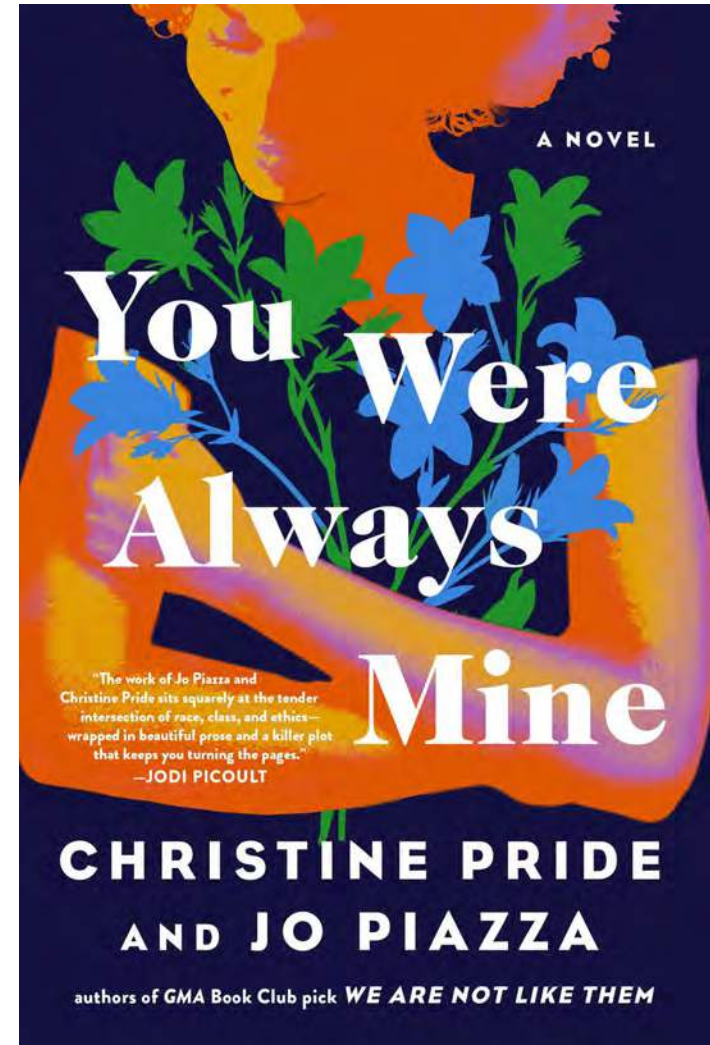

Hardcover

On sale: June 13th

ISBN-13: 9781668005507

$28.00

Christine Pride and Jo Piazza, the acclaimed authors of We Are Not Like Them, return with a moving and provocative novel about a Black woman who finds an abandoned white baby, sending her on a collision course with her past, her family, and a birth mother who doesn't want to be found. Is being a mother a right, an obligation or a privilege? Who gets to be a mother? And to whom? And what are we willing to sacrifice for the sake of marriage, friendship and our dreams?

The Paris Daughter

Kristin Harmel

Gallery Books

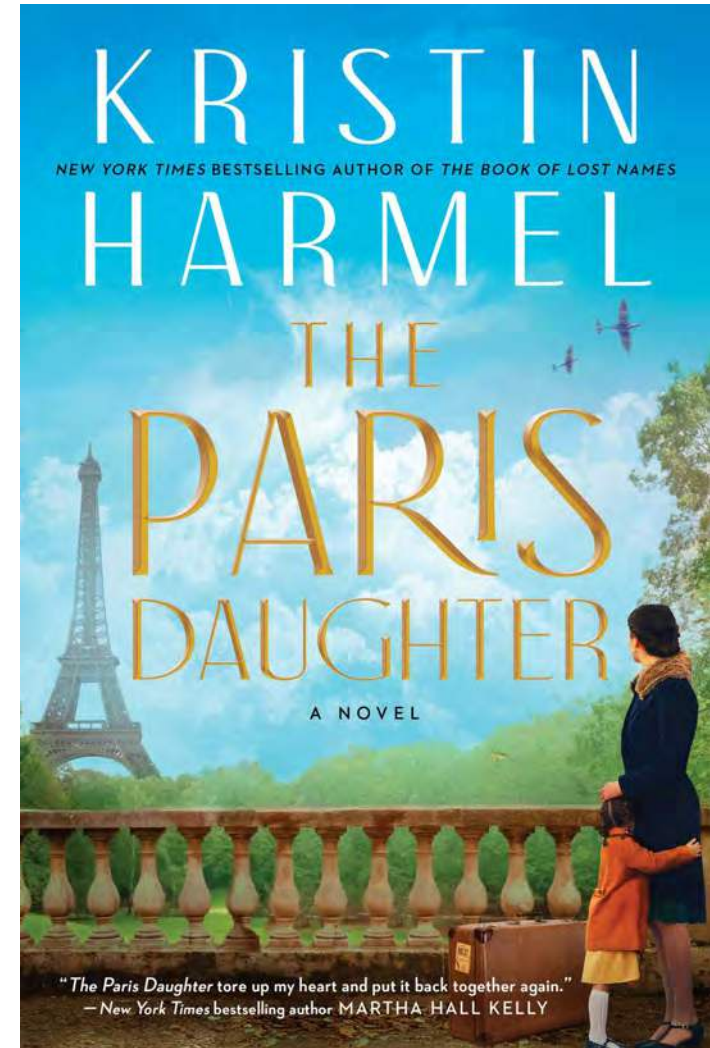

Hardcover

On sale: June 6th

ISBN-13: 9781982191702

$28.99

The Paris Daughter has all the ingredients of a perfect book club pick! Ripe with themes on motherhood, female friendships, dreams lost and found, and the impossible decisions women make, this rich historical novel is bursting with easy conversation starters. Best of all, the story is centered on a bookstore, La Librarie des Reves, which becomes a touchstone for both protagonists across the Atlantic and across time. It'll be hard to stop talking about!

Bright Young Women

Jessica Knoll

Simon Element/Marysue Rucci Books

Hardcover

On sale: October 3rd

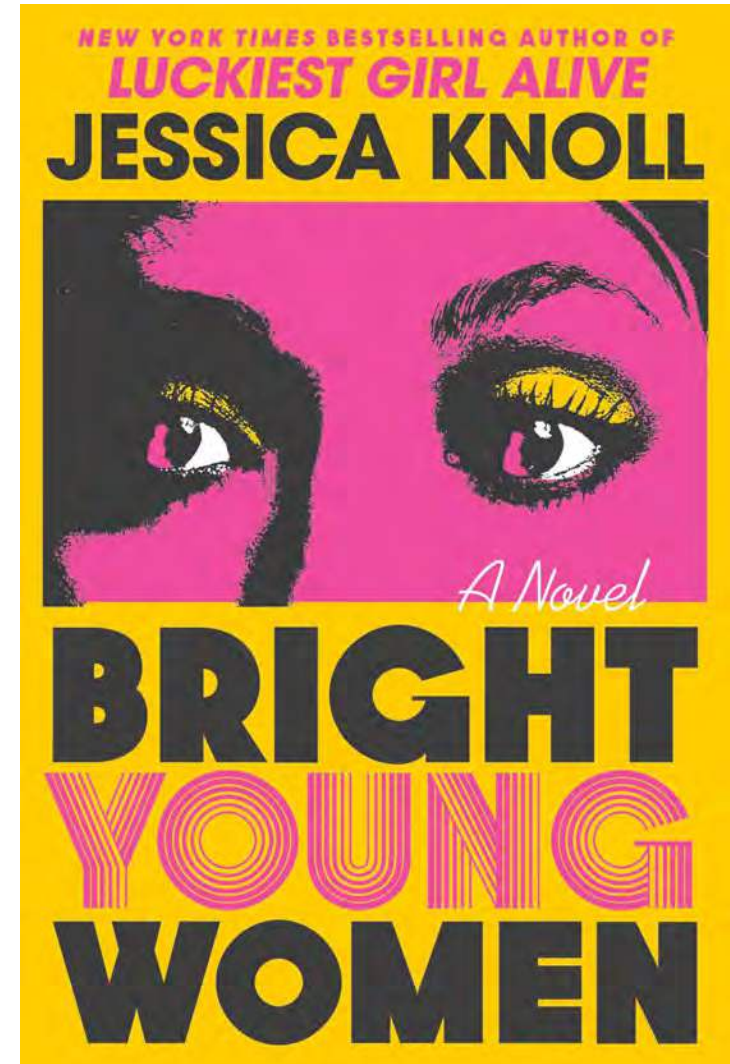

ISBN-13: 9781501153228

$27.99

Masterfully blending elements of psychological suspense and true crime, Jessica Knoll --- author of the bestselling novel Luckiest Girl Alive and writer behind the Mila Kunis Netflix adaption of the book --- takes inspiration from a real-life serial killer's attacks against a Florida sorority house in 1978 in Bright Young Women. In the aftermath, one of the survivors meets another woman on the hunt for justice. Together, their search for answers becomes a rallying cry for sisterhood and tenacity, and explores cultural questions around misogyny, societal narratives, and the right to tell one's story.

The Invisible Hour

Alice Hoffman

Atria Books

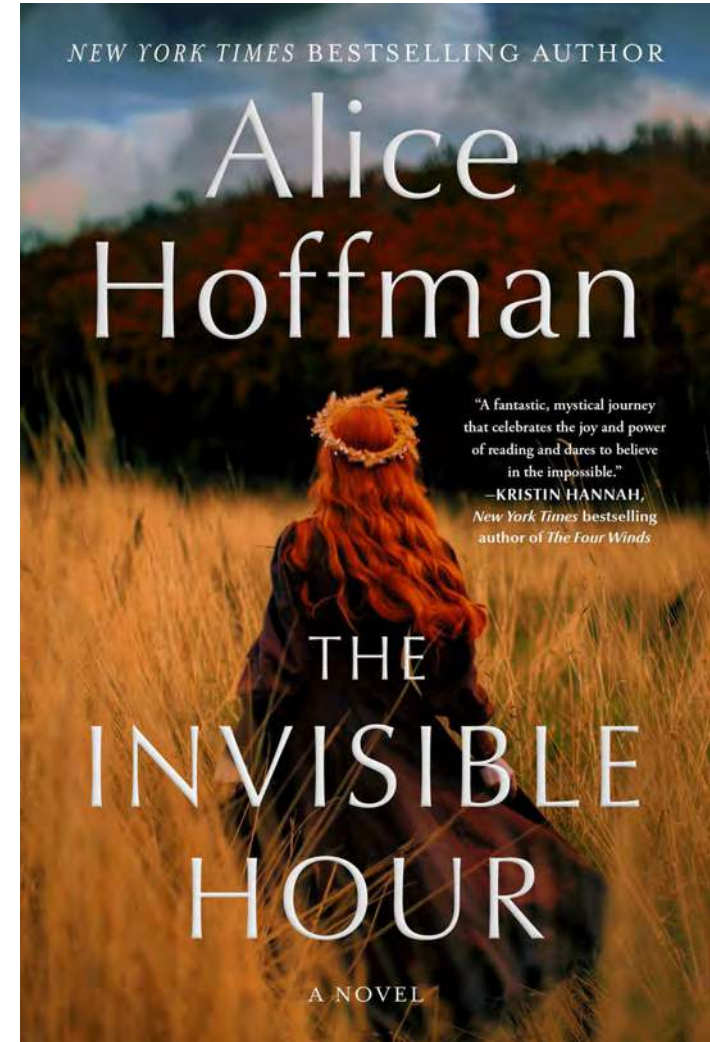

Hardcover

On sale: August 15th

ISBN-13: 9781982175375

$27.99

Beloved New York Times bestselling author Alice Hoffman is back with The Invisible Hour, an enchanting novel about love, heartbreak, self-discovery and the enduring magic of books. One brilliant June day, when Mia Jacobs can no longer see a way to survive, the power of words saves her. The Scarlet Letter was written almost 200 years earlier, but it seems to be telling the story of Mia's mother Ivy and their life inside the community. An oppressive cult where contact with the outside world is forbidden and books are evil. But how could this be? The Invisible Hour is the story of a woman's dream, and it's a novel that book clubs will be clamoring to discuss.
